Spain's wine industry is firing on all cylinders, producing terrific wines from regions across the country. Here's a mixed case, mostly red, from Rioja, Ribera del Duero and Priorat.

BODEGAS EPIFANIO RIVERA Ribera del Duero Erial 2012 Score: 90 / $24

This graceful red offers black cherry and cranberry flavors, with appealing floral, graphite and leafy notes. The texture is fleshy but fresh, the wine harmonious and long. Emphasizes expressiveness over structure. Drink now through 2020. 3,000 cases imported.—T.M.
